Department Chair Address

Dr. Mark Rehfuss

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE.

Dear Students, Alumni, Staff and Faculty of CHS,

We're excited to start a new year, especially with some fantastic updates for you. This year, we're launching our online counseling program in Clinical Mental Health and hope to try out an accelerated option for the Human Services distance learning program in the spring or next fall, making your education even more accessible and flexible.

We're also thrilled to introduce several new faculty members who will be key to our students' journey:

- Tom Seguin, Clinical Professor of Counseling, who will bring his real-world experience into your coursework.
- Maggie Grindrod and Pe'Atra Wilson, Lecturers in Human Services, both dedicated to your success and ready to share their expertise.

Students, as you dive into your studies, remember that whether you're learning online or in person, our commitment to your growth and future remains strong. This year is all about innovation, opportunity, and making an impact—both in your education and in the lives of those you'll serve.

Here's to a great year ahead! We're so glad to have you with us.

Best regards,

Dr. Rehfuss

2024 DIVERSITY CHAMPIONS

Dr. Judith Wambui Preston, Dr. Shuntay Tarver
& Travis Jacobs, M.S.Ed

THE DARDEN COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL STUDIES DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION STATEMENT

"The Darden College of Education & Professional Studies is dedicated to engaging in intentional and ongoing efforts to create a culturally sustaining climate that is committed to equity, inclusivity, and diversity. We are devoted to fostering a diverse community of faculty, staff, and students in uncovering and addressing systemic barriers, promoting an inclusive and equitable community, and supporting social justice in our programs and in the professional disciplines for which we prepare our students. Such dedication includes aligning our efforts with the university's strategic plan, evaluating our progress and adjusting our efforts to meet our evolving goals.

The Darden College of Education & Professional Studies strives to build a culture of inclusivity which helps our faculty and students thrive in scholarship, knowledge generation and community engagement. We believe these efforts will assist our university in meeting the needs of a rapidly changing world and our success depends upon the robust exchange of ideas across cultures."

A LIFETIME OF ACHIEVEMENT

2024 ACA FELLOWS AWARD

The American Counseling Association Fellows Award acknowledges ACA members of professional distinction for significant and unique contributions to the counseling profession on a national level. ACA Fellows have a record of demonstrated success, and their work has an enduring impact. This award recognizes those who have gone beyond quantity and provided quality work that has influenced, changed, and significantly advanced the counseling profession and/or counselor practices through their professional practice; scholarly achievement; leadership and governance; and/or teaching, training, supervision and mentoring.

Throughout his career, Dr. Moe's main scholarship focus has been LGBTQ issues in Counseling. His scholarship has appeared in numerous journals. He has served as president of the Virginia Association for LGBT Issues in Counseling, and in 2022, Dr. Moe began serving as the Editor in Chief of the Journal of LGBTQ Issues in Counseling, an international peer-reviewed journal. In the Spring of 2017, Dr. Moe received the Old Dominion University President's Diversity Award for advocacy with and on behalf of LGBTQ communities.

Congratulations to Büşra Vurkun for being selected as a
2024-2025 Emerging Leader with the Association for Child and Adolescent Counseling!!

Büşra Vurkun is a first-year doctoral student in the ODU Counselor Education and Supervision PhD program. She is originally from Turkey but identifies as a global citizen, having spread her expertise and passion for child mental health across the globe. She earned both her B.A. and M.A. in Psychological Counseling from Turkey and has studied in Portugal and Romania through the Erasmus scholarships. With four years of professional experience as an international school counselor, her research surrounds positive body image development in children and adolescents as well as and multicultural school counseling.

Her time at ODU has included co-teaching school counselor preparation courses as well as developing our one-of-a-kind Advanced School Counseling Ed.S. program. Through the ACAC Emerging Leaders program, Büşra will contribute to ACAC's journal and research efforts. Congratulations Büşra! We are proud of you and the work you do to support children and adolescents!

HUMAN SERVICES ASSOCIATION

MEMBERSHIP IS OPEN TO ALL MAJORS AND MINORS!

- Are you looking for ways to get more involved during your time at Old Dominion?
- Do you need volunteer hours for a course or need an internship placement?
- Do you like giving back to your local community through acts of service?
- Are you interested in collaborating with other Monarch's to explore career opportunities and build your professional resume?

This student-based organization is rebuilding itself from the ground up. Our main mission is to get Monarch's out into their local communities to provide quality acts of service for those in need. We will also be facilitating one major service project each semester, starting in Fall 2024, and we need YOUR help to make it happen.

Current areas of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Mental Health Awareness
- Domestic Violence Awareness
- Food Insecurity
- Elderly Care
- Substance Use Awareness
- Youth Education
- Health Care Accessibility
- Disability Awareness

Join us for one of our three virtual informational sessions on:

- Tuesday, August 27th from 6:00-7:00PM,
- Thursday, August 29th from 6:00-7:00PM, or
- Friday, August 30th from 12:30-1:30PM

Multi-Level Research Team

Our department is proud to highlight the work of the Multi-Level Research Team, a dynamic group comprising master's students, doctoral students, and professors. This team exemplifies our commitment to research excellence and mentorship. With a strong focus on developing research skills and guiding students through the publication process, the team provides an invaluable platform for academic growth. Mentorship is at the core of this initiative, fostering an environment where students at various stages of their academic careers collaborate, learn, and thrive. The team's goals include producing high-quality research that contributes to the field, while also preparing students to become the next generation of scholars and educators. Recent outcomes have included several published articles and conference presentations, reflecting the team's dedication to research and professional development.

CHS HAS A NEW PARTNERSHIP!

Collaboration with Mountain Seed Foundation Healing Base Camp

The DCEPS Department of Counseling and Human Services will be providing several different forms of support to the camps this summer, including the following:

- Two faculty will be developing and implementing (on site) program evaluations and assessments (Dean Dr. Tammi Dice and Dr. Mark Rehfuss).
- Two ODU DCEPS alumni and adjunct instructors will be providing therapeutic interventions to camp participants (Dr. Tony Dice and Dr. Traci Richards).
- One Counseling PhD student will be obtaining field experience under the supervision of Dr. Mark Rehfuss (Jill Kivikoski).
